

Poll Taxes Fall Behind '58 Pace

County and city poll tax receipts are running behind the number registered last year at this time. City Sec. John Andres reported about 500 city poll taxes paid thus far while County Tax Assessor Valtor White noted about 2700 county poll taxes paid at three Milam offices.

City and County poll tax offices will be open until midnight Saturday for the final rush of poll tax payments.

Poll tax receipts up to this time last year were 552 while county receipts totaled about 3500 in 1958 at this time.

The school tax office will be open until midnight Saturday for late tax payers, Miss Nina Wilkerson, school tax collector said today.

Miss Wilkerson's office is in Yoe High School Gymnasium.

The county tax collector's office in the courthouse will be open until midnight Saturday, officials said. Payment of county poll taxes entitles a vote in county and state elections.

County poll tax may be paid at the Gaither Motor Co. in Rockdale or with Max Hengest, Thorndale, according to White.

No state elections are scheduled, but a city vote is set for three council posts in April while two school district posts are to be considered. School and council posts in other county towns will also be voted.

Mall Stock Show Awaits Big Crowd

Livestockmen and cattle enthusiasts from around the county will lead the crowds of thousands expected for the Cameron Chamber's Mall showing of junior livestock February 6-7.

Chamber Manager Richard Mosley extended an invitation to every Milam Countyman to attend the February 6-7 showing of farm equipment, new cars and feed stuffs on the Milam Courthouse square.

The Junior Stock Show, annual Chamber event, will be held Saturday, February 7, but other exhibits and Double Dollar Days will continue Friday and Saturday, February 6-7, Mosley said.

Scene of the Mall activity will be on the closed off streets on the west and south sides for exhibits and on the east side for the stock show.

John S. Batte, livestock committee chairman, is predicting a big field of 100 cattle entries from throughout Milam County.

Show judging will be divided into three categories: beef, dairy and swine. And cash awards totaling $500 will be granted along with place ribbons for top entries in each event.

Meanwhile, Cameron merchants were stocking up for Double Dollar Day specials "that would make other Cen-Tex towns sit up and notice," Mosley emphasized.

Chamber President Hilliard Thomas said the event was going to be a city-wide project bringing together business and agriculture.

Baylor U. To Offer Extension Course Locally

Final plans will be made Thursday (tonight) at 7:30 p.m. in Yoe High School for a Baylor University extension course to be offered in Cameron this semester.

Dr. M. L. Goetting of Baylor University will be on hand to discuss the courses available. All teachers, administrators and coaches have been invited to attend the organizational meeting and help select the type of course.

Dr. Goetting announced that the class would meet once a week between 6 and 9 p.m. on Monday or Thursday nights. Teachers taking the course will receive three semester hours of credit to be applied on their masters degree, on in-service work, or on the last part of their BA degree.

Max McClaren stated that ten teachers had signed up for the course and ten more needed. He urged that anyone interested either attend the meeting or send their name by someone who could attend. For further information McClaren advised calling him at 517 or Wiley Loughmiller at 578.

for a "grand show." Implement dealers and new car dealers were planning to display their equipment both days along with Double Dollar Days.

All streets around the courthouse except First Street will be utilized for the Mall exhibits and stock show.

Poage Nominates Archie Mraz For Air Academy

Archie Lee Mraz, C. H. Yoe High School senior, has been nominated by Congressman W. R. (Bob) Poage to the Air Force to participate in the competitive examination for entry to the Air Force Academy.

Mraz, all-round athlete at YHS, is an honor roll student and is active in high school activities.

He will be among eleven boys from the Eleventh Congressional District to compete for one vacancy Congressman Poage is allowed to fill at the Academy each year, beginning with the class entering the Academy in 1959. The first qualifying examinations will be given in March. If an applicant is successful in passing these; he will then be scheduled for the physical examination in April. Provided he is the highest among the 11, Mraz would enter the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado, on June 26, 1959.

Nelson Addresses KC Grid Banquet

About 125 Knights of Columbus members, guests and Yoe High School grid players Monday heard Robert Nelson, Milam County attorney, recommend following in adult life the rules of self-sacrifice learned in football.

A former all-pro center with the Los Angeles Dons, Nelson was the featured speaker in the 10th annual banquet given by Cameron KC's for YHS football players. He was introduced by MC Charlie Burke.

Burke also introduced YHS Coach Jim Speer who introduced in turn his staff and players. Also presented were officials of the county, city and school governments.

Nelson cited court statistics in pointing out that football athletes seldom cause infractions of the law. He said that a lone youth with football experience in high school out of 400,000 boys 15-18 had been

Column 99

By Frank
M.
Luecke

NOW and then, a columnist gropes for material to bring his by-lined offering out of the so-so depths upto the heights of fascinating reading.

IS it easy to write a decent column? In fact, what makes a column more than a typing exercise?

THE answer is a keen sense of humor observing world of chaos and gloom through jaundiced eyes behind rose-colored glasses.

TIME was, we remember, when people were more relaxed, more easily interested in the trivial, the everyday, rather than the healthier shelter race for more goods and services. There was a time of "fun to live" instead of the TV age of "live for fun."

FOR the present age, there are jetliners, rockets, satellites, hot-rods, atomic subs, motorcycles, power lawnmowers and infinitum. ALL of these things get us to our destination quicker. That includes the moon, across the U.S. continent, around the corner or around the world.

GOOD! Once there, where are we? We immediately are concerned with the return trip, instead of enjoying the stay between flights.

MEN haven't really changed. They have merely passed into the space age.

TO cite an example: consider an average U.S. schedule. Up at 7, bolt breakfast, roar off to work, worry through lunch, work, hurry home. After five days of work, it's play. Off for a weekend drive, watch out for traffic overhead and under wheel. Sound familiar?

COME to think of it, you might say, that's the way it goes. We should ask: Why do we do it?

TO the would-be columnist, this speed is the sign of the times. It hardly allows him time to comment before a faster problem zooms by.

THE writer's rose-colored glasses help filter out the harmful blast-off rays. His jaundiced eyes question the basic nature of his material.

AIDING the writer too are his slow-moving thinking processes. If he attempted to maintain the normal living pace, he would melt the rims off his glasses.

OF all things, the columnist cannot be in too much of a hurry. He must go full round the fun and fantasy of people and their problems.

THEIR actions and their stories make the columns ring or rumble. COUNTRY or city, afield or a-far, a columnist takes his sense of humor, hoping to interpret a little of bit of Americana or ending up with only a typing exercise!

hailed before U. S. courts.

"You have to pay for what you get," Nelson emphasized. "You must sacrifice for the honor of being a Yoe football letterman and then must assume the responsibility that goes with accomplishment."

"You boys should feel proud of wearing the 'Y' of Yoe High School," he continued, "because it took sacrifice. And now that you hold that honor, the obligation of leadership to younger boys and even adults is yours."

Nelson told the group they would maintain the key thing in a person's life, self-respect, if they followed the rules they learned in playing the game of football.

"Court records recommend the game of football and other sports for their influence in a young fellow's life," he pointed out. "And I have faith in the choice you boys will make."

Humble Outlines New 90-Mile Plan

The Milam County road program for 1959 under State Highway Department planning has scheduled almost 90 miles of road construction or reworking. Judge Don Humble told Rotarians Wednesday.

The county judge was guest speaker before the Cameron Rotary Club Wednesday at Kathy's Cafe.

In explaining the 1959 county road program listed by the State Highway Department, Judge Humble noted that the county now has 145 miles of surfaced farm-to-market roads and would have 260 miles of surfaced farm-to-market roads when a long-range state highway planning program is complete.

Humble said that current projects ranging from those under construction to others programmed but not yet engineered total 20, including about 60 miles of resurfacing or building new farm-to-market roads.

Current highway construction underway, Judge Humble said, included the US 77 widening project in Cameron and a US 79 widening project from Rocky Creek east to Rockdale.

Letting of the new US 77 route from Minerva south to outside Rockdale, he noted, was scheduled about February 13-14.

Small Dam Plans Await Decision Of Engineers

Directors of the San Gabriel River Water Control and Improvement District have voted to postpone further action on plans for small dams until the Army Engineers have announced their decision on proposed big dams on the San Gabriel at Georgetown.

A decision by the Army is expected this coming spring, and directors decided it would be better to wait until decision before proceeding with plans for small dams.

At a re-organization meeting following the re-election of two directors, A.C. (Doc) Weir was elected secretary of the board, replacing D. P. Irvine who has served since the board was formed. C. P. Hutto of Bertram was elected vice president and H. B. Fox of Circleville was re-elected president. Other board members are Mr. Irvine and Henry Labaj of Friendship. C. E. Gaunt of Georgetown is attorney for the board.

After the Army Engineers' decision is known, a more intelligent decision can be made on how much of the watershed is practical for small dam flood prevention projects, directors pointed out.

School Census Due Completion Saturday

The annual school census for the Cameron Independent School District is now being made with completion date set for Saturday.

All children born between September 1, 1941 and September 1, 1953 in the Cameron school district must be counted according to Miss Dallis Young, census taker. The Cameron district includes Cameron city limits, Hoyte, Salem, Elm Ridge, Yarrington, Ben Arnold, Watt Switch, Walkers Creek, Jones Prairie, Belmena, North Elm, Curry, Clarkson, Vogelsang, Ad Hall and Marlow.

Parents of school age children who have not been counted are asked to contact Miss Young at phone 134 or 22.

Possessory rights have been obtained for the new US 77 south of Minerva which will cut east of the present road and almost due south to the east side of Rockdale.

The Minerva-Rockdale project is the first of three state contracts ready for letting, Humble said. The second is US 77-SH 36 south-east of Cameron to their intersection which will be a maintenance contract for work on the shoulders.

The third project is the painting of Little River Bridge on US 77 just east of Cameron.

A third category of the road building agenda schedules five other projects, now in process of being cleared with officials obtaining right-of-way deeds.

Getting Right-of-Way

The projects are: the Yarrington-Marak - Cameron farm-to-market road; construction of a bridge at Norman Valley on FM 486; extension of FM 908 northwest of Rockdale; construction on a road from Thorndale south to Conoley Church; and extension of FM 908 south of Rockdale to the Burleson County line.

In a fourth group of projects listed by Humble, engineering work is underway, but no actual moves for right-of-way or planned routes have been made.

Termining them "indefinite" when asked about the completion of this group of roads, Humble said the State Highway Department is studying the following for later 1959 action:

- 1—Resurfacing road from Clarkston to Ben Arnold.
- 2—Resurfacing road from Splawn to Yarrington.
- 3—Construction of three miles of new road from Buckholts to Corinth.
- 4—Replace bridges on FM 487 west of Minerva.
- 5—Rebuild US 79 from Rocky Creek west to Thorndale.
- 6—Designated work on FM 908 to FM 486.
- 7—Designated work on road from US 77 to Alcoa.
- 8—Designated new route for US 77 south of Rockdale to Lee County line.
- 9—Resurface US 79 through Milam.
- 10—Designated a farm-to-market road from Liberty to Milam.

"This last group of projects is on the highway department's planning boards, but no action has been taken to start work in the field," Humble said.

Carroll Zeigler, resident engineer and C. B. Thames, district engineer, have said that funds are available for all these projects in 1959, but it will probably take longer to complete them, particularly the last group, Humble said.

Council Calls For Six-Mile Program

The City Council Tuesday night approved calling for bids for new surfacing on East Twelfth St. and North Fannin and appointed a contact man to gain property owner approval for projects on North Jackson and Sixth Street through Cameron.

The two-fold measure when completed will give Cameron about six miles of resurfaced streets, two of which were topmost on the City Planning Commission's outline for street improvement.

Bids were called for resurfacing Twelfth St. from US 77 North to North Jackson St. and refinishing North Fannin from East Fourth St. to E. Twelfth St.

The council appointed Ed Gunn, Cameron, to direct contact work with property owners along the length of Sixth and North Jackson Sts. for complete reworking and resurfacing of about three and one-half miles of streetways on the two thoroughfares.

Mayor Bassel Wilson said the city would ask that property owners pay $1 per running foot of 150-pound asphalt surfacing along Sixth and Jackson Sts.

Asphalt Surfacing

He said surfacing only was scheduled since a complete reworking and curbing of both streets would take "about $2 millions for a complete job."

Gunn met with councilmen Wednesday morning to schedule contact arrangements with property owners along the two streets. Officials hoped that surfacing work could begin on Sixth and Jackson streets within three weeks.

"The surfacing projects on Fannin and Twelfth will be completed after bids are let at council meeting February 10," Wilson said.

In other street construction planning, the council voted to employ a special street grader to work with the city's grader to speed clearing of Sixth and Jackson streets and grade other streets needing work.

The council tabled any decision on a city engineer-public works man pending work on the six miles of streets.

No charge to property owners will be made on Twelfth and Fannin streets, officials said. "Since the 125-pound topping will be placed over the existing surface without tearing up the present streets."

To Clear 6th, Jackson

But graders will cut away the old surfaces of Sixth and Jackson streets for leveling prior to the surfacing with asphalt.

Gunn will direct contact work with property owners along Sixth and Jackson streets to clear the way for construction of the two thoroughfares.

Wilson said if property owners will sign a city petition for the surfacing, a surfacing job can be completed within a few weeks.

Meanwhile construction on US 77 in Cameron continued as final

New '59 License Plates Will Go On Sale Monday

New license plates for 1959 will go on sale in the Milam County Courthouse Monday, February 2, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer announced today. The plates will be the reverse of 1958's, and will have black letters and numerals on a white background.

Greer stated that four and one-half million motor vehicle registrations were bought by Texans in 1958. "Don't be at the end of that long line. Get your vehicle registered early," Greer urged. "The registration deadline is April 1, but we hope car and truck owners will put on the new plates as soon as possible."

Valter White, Milam Tax Collector, stressed the importance of registering all automobiles and trucks in the home county of the vehicle owner.

"Be sure to bring your certificate of title and your last year's registration receipt to the tax collectors office at the Courthouse," White said. Penalty for improper registration of a vehicle can be as much as $200," he reminded.

"Don't risk an illegal registration. Remember, too, that a portion of all registration fees stays in Milam County to benefit your local community."

Crawford Gives Photos Of Early Cameron Events

T. A. (Tim) Crawford, a long time resident here, came into the Herald office last week with three pictures of the old days, in response to the paper's request for photos and stories for use in its forthcoming Centennial edition.

One of Mr. Crawford's pictures is a street scene across from the present day City Hall and shows Cameron's first fire engine. There is no date, but it is of ancient vintage, since it has solid rubber tires.

The second picture is a view of the 1921 flood in which rampaging Little River washed out the Santa Fe tracks below town.

The other picture also was of liquids -- it was of a bar in a 1911 saloon.

Commenting on this one, Mr. Crawford said there were some 28 saloons in Cameron in those pre-Prohibition days. Saturday night drunks, he said, were allowed to sleep it off, unmolested, in the gutter out in the street in front on Sundays as late as they liked.

Mr. Crawford said he saw his first automobile here about 1911. He recalled John Dobbins had an early day Kissel. He also remembered how a crowd that had gathered to watch a newly imported car start on its first run around town, when it was cranked up and back-fired prodigiously, take off hastily in all directions. The crowd, more gun shy than present day citizens, thought another shooting had started in town.

ELECTRICITY FOR 1969 ON DRAWING BOARD NOW
Time was when the spring and fall catalogues were "dog-eared" from use by the whole family... selecting and ordering merchandise needed for the coming season. Ordering and waiting was the accepted procedure for much of the buying.
Not so with the electric industry! A closer look reveals, for more than 46 years, those receiving their electric service from TP&L have never had to wait. Placing an order simply meant flipping a switch and your electricity was there instantly to serve you.
This instantaneous service, now taken for granted, is possible because TP&L is constantly planning to keep ahead of your needs for electricity. As your requirements have grown, TP&L has always anticipated your increasing needs. Construction plans for supplying your power needs five to ten years hence are on TP&L's drawing boards now. It takes three years of construction time to build a modern power plant... so you can see that plans must be developed years in advance, commitments made and contracts signed. This is the only way to be sure you'll have plenty of power... always.
TP&L is a product of our country's free enterprise system at work. Through advanced planning and efficient operation it has been able to keep your supply of electricity plentiful, and the price low. Since 1936 the unit price of residential electricity has gone down 43% while the cost of living has gone up 108%.

PICTURE CAMERON WITHOUT A NEWSPAPER

Downright compulsive, isn't it, this consuming curiosity about what's going on around town?

But try to picture your town without a newspaper!

Dimly, you recall something that Thomas Jefferson once said: "Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers or newspapers without government, I should not hesitate to prefer the latter."

Nonsense! That was long ago. It's different now. This is the electronic age. What with split stocks and split second jet-away-of-living, we now have all sorts of checker-uppers on our civic goings-on.

But have we? Let's take inventory. Whatever wonders and wizardries communication offers today, one thing remains the same: the heart of the free press is still the good reporter. And the good newspaper — its printed words documenting human happenings — is still the initial instrument in the protection of rights and liberties throughout the land.

The fact is plain. And it's reiterated in the record: Almost every day some American newspaper — ranging in size from the mighty metropolitan daily to the small town weekly — is acclaimed for its constructive efforts in helping to build a better community ... or for its vigilance in searching out and snuffing out corruption, tyranny and injustice.

In this service, traditionally — yes, and imitably — the newspaper is still supreme.

So, if you will, keep on taking your free press for granted. But — if you value your freedom — don't let anything or anybody take your newspaper away from you.

Income Tax Facts

Questions and Answers About Your Individual Income Tax Report for 1958, as Presented By The Texas Press Association

What form shall I use for my 1958 federal income tax return?

You have a choice. Form 1040-A short form 1040 or long form 1040.

The card return form 1040-A for 1958 filing has been revised to cover employees with incomes up to $10,000.

The new card form may be used by any individual with total income of less than $10,000 consisting of wages reported on form W-2 and not more than $200 in dividends, interest, and wages not subject to withholding.

Husband and wife may also file a joint return on form 1040-A if their combined income does not exceed these limits.

HD Agent Advises Re-Setting Shrubs, Foundation Plantings

Alice G. Hughes
Home Demonstration Agent

This is a good time to organize shrubs into screen or foundation plantings around the home. Any shrubs that dot the lawn and complicate mowing may be re-set between now and February 15.

To save work later, consider the potential size of the tree or shrub, when choosing a location for setting or re-setting. Large growing plants are not suited for planting around the walls or foundation of the average home. They do make excellent screen plantings to give privacy to the work or recreation area of the landscape. Some large plants that require very little water are the althea, ligustrums, Arizona cypress, cherry laurel, crape myrtle, evergreen sumac and others. Nearly all of the hollies should be used in screen planting rather than place around the house.

Keep the size of your house in mind when you choose foundation plantings. For the low, ranch type house, which is popular in some areas of the state, true shrubs, that can be kept from 2 to 4 feet tall, are best suited. There are many that are drought and insect resistant. Among these are rosemary, lavender, the dwarf junipers spirea, dwarf pyracantha, nandina, abelia, native agave and others.

County ASC Meets, Discuss Plans For 1959 Cotton Acreage

Three county meetings were held this week at Thorndale, Buckholts, and Cameron, to discuss the A & B plans for planting cotton acreage according to J. D. Moore, county agent. These meetings were held by the County A. S. C. officials, county Extension agricultural teachers. Purpose of the discussions were aimed at assisting the farmers in determining the plan to follow. The choice of the plan will be left up to the farmer to decide which plan would better meet his needs.

Oats Damage Report
Our farmers and stockmen are aware of the unfavorable growth of most of our oats in the county. A & M Pathologist report that "Crown rust" (brown colored leaves) is wide spread and has retarded growth of most varieties. Also, a fungus disease called "Helminthosporium Blight," is wide spread and affects most varieties of oats. The Nortex variety is least susceptible to these conditions. Victorgrain follows next to Nortex in susceptibility.

The "Alamo" and Bronco varieties are most susceptible varieties planted locally. There is no remedy for immediate control of these conditions. A combination of crop rotation and seed treatment are necessary for control when a susceptible variety is being grown.

By using form 1040-A, you automatically claim the standard 10 per cent deduction allowed by law for personal expenses such as contributions, interest payments, medical expenses, and the like. If your allowable deductions for these items is in excess of 10 per cent of your income you must use the regular form 1040 to claim them.

Taxpayers with incomes under $5,000 may figure their own tax or have Uncle Sam do it for them. If you owe some tax, this is a good way to get some extra time in which to pay it. Since the law does not permit this choice to be extended to income up to $10,000 taxpayers having $5,000 or more income must figure their own tax and remit with the return 1040-A.

1040 SHORT FORM
If your adjusted gross income is more than $10,000 and your itemized deductions are less than 10 per cent of your adjusted gross income, you should use short form 1040.

1040 LONG FORM
If your adjusted gross income is over $10,000 you must use this form. If your itemized deductions are over 10 per cent of your adjusted gross income, it will be to your advantage to use this form. To assure any benefits of the split-income provisions, you and your wife should file a joint return. Both you and your wife must sign a joint return. One spouse cannot file a long form 1040 and take all the deductions and the other spouse file a form 1040-A or take the standard deduction or use the tax table.

Poll Tax Time...

It's poll tax paying time this week.

The privilege of voting in Texas is determined first by payment of your poll tax. Thus the interested citizen should assure his voting franchise by paying both his state and city poll tax if he lives in Cameron.

Three centers are authorized for collection of poll tax payments in Milam County. They are: The tax collector's office, County Courthouse, Cameron, and two branch offices in Rockdale and Thorndale.

City poll taxes may be paid at City Hall. Both taxes are due for payment no later than Saturday, January 31.

Latest totals on state poll taxes paid in Milam County is an estimated 2,572 with 2,372 being paid in Cameron.

City poll taxes paid are a mere 458 thus far, well below the total for the same time last year.

Voters are prone to forget about elections and political issues in the off-years when no state or national races are run. But in Cameron city elections come each April. And in the county water district elections and such special elections as precinct votes on animal control laws require a state poll tax payment for voting eligibility.

Cameron voters will consider election of councilmen to three posts now held by Lincoln Mondrik, Richard Moseley and Hayden Lawrence.

It has almost become trite to say that voting is a privilege, a heritage and a personal duty of citizenship. Still it is true. Regardless how we vote on issues or candidates, the democratic process is not complete without exercising the free vote.

Thinks Average Driver Can't Use
Enough Gas To Pay For 8-Lane Highway

Dear editor:

I was sitting by the fire the other night flipping through a magazine when I ran into an article saying the United States government is looking for inventors, and it went ahead and listed a long string of things this country need to have invented.

Now I never have invented anything, outside of a few excuses, but I've had a lot of experience trying to keep other people's inventions running, and what impressed me by that list was what it left out. It left out what looks like the Federal government itself ought to be the first thing of and put at the head of the list.

What this country needs, over and above all other gadgets and labor-saving devices and handier hydrogen bombs, is a new source of tax revenue.

It doesn't make any difference whether it's President Eisenhower in Washington, Governor Daniel in Austin, or the governor of any other state, including Alaska, and the mayors of most cities and towns, everybody is looking for a new source of tax revenue.

Right now, everybody seems to be in a rut, and about all anybody can think of is to put a new tax on cars and gasoline. Any time any official has to wrestle with the problem of finding new revenue to balance a budget, he generally comes up with the idea of raising the tax on gasoline.

This makes sense, in one way, as most people will give up nearly everything, including groceries and clothes, before they'll stop driving their car.

But I'm afraid they can go too far in this direction. Of course their argument is that we're building 30 billion dollars worth of new highways across the nation, not counting all the side roads and local highways, and the best way to pay for them is to tax the users.

Well, I'll tell you. You can tax a driver to pay for a simple highway, one he uses every few days, and it makes sense, the user ought to pay, but it's going to be mighty hard to tax a man going one way for three more lanes going in the same direction and four more going in the other. The average man just can't use enough gasoline to pay for an eight-lane highway, unless they make cars that burn eight times as much gas, and I think they're working on that too.

The problem is too big for me, but if a man wants to go down in history two notches ahead of Thomas Edison, Alexander Graham Bell, Robert Fulton and the Wright Brothers, let him invent a new source of tax revenue. And I think he'd better hurry.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Lawmakers Puzzle 'Chicken Or Egg'

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—Texas lawmakers face the old "chicken or egg" problem as they move into the session's main issue—money.

Is it best to decide first how much the state must spend to keep its various programs going and then scrape up tax money to cover them? Or should the tax take be set first and the pies sliced accordingly?

Thus far, both problems are being juggled at the same time. Already the mathematical acrobatics are spreading jitters among spectators—both appropriation seekers and tax worriers.

Governor's Prescription

Gov. Price Daniel is prescribing a two-pronged, $210,000,000 plan to cure state fiscal ailments.

First prong is to raise $65,000,000 to pay off the debt expected in the general revenue fund by the end of this fiscal year. Second prong is to raise $272,000,000 a year ($145,000,000 for the next biennium) to cover spending from the general revenue fund.

Sources for this money would include: (1) a natural gas severance tax, (2) an increase in levies on motor vehicle sales, tobacco and corporation franchises and (3) policies and property, which the state would take over.

Governor Daniel increased his previously recommended budget by nearly $20,000,000 to include appropriations for retiring state bonds, providing medical care for people on welfare rolls, a driver education program and advertising for tourists and industry.

Total two-year spending from general revenue would be $330,000,000.

Smaller Pie

Compared to the governor's proposal, the Legislative Budget Board's recommendation for general revenue fund spending looks modest—only $225,000,000.

Though the Board's spending would be nearly $45,000,000 less than the governor's, it would still be some $4,600,000 higher than the 1958-59 appropriation.

Budget Board suggests slight increases for the judicial system, executive and administrative departments, hospitals and special schools, public schools and highways. Small cuts were recommended for junior colleges and higher education.

Seelgson Plan

Rep. Frates S. Seelgson of San Antonio has prepared an extensive plan to overhaul and beef up the state's tax collecting.

Topping the list would be a 15 per cent sales tax with food, feed and fertilizer exempted. It would bring an estimated $67,000,000 annually.

Another Seelgson bill would re-codify present tax laws. It would do away with some regarded as obsolete (such as on clock peddlers' street cars) and others called inequitable (on chain stores, stock transfers, radio, TV, cosmetics, etc.) Same bill would eliminate certain exemptions and revise other taxes, mostly upward, on motor vehicle, tobacco and liquor sales. Net gain from the revisions would be a $11,500,000 a year gain in revenue.

Like Daniel, Seelgson recommends that the state take over unclaimed money and property.

Seelgson was vice chairman of the State Tax Study Commission that spent the between-sessions months working on tax problems.

Fair Warning

Governor Daniel and Lt. Ben Ramsey both declared at their inaugural that they have sympathetic hearts for Texas taxpayers.

Governor Daniel proposed greater efficiency and economy by combining some of the 175 separate agencies and 213 special accounts operated by the state.

Ramsey promised there would be "no stringing up of the unfortunate taxpayer by the heels to shake out enough money to give everyone everything he wants."

Added Ramsey, "I refuse to admit that the success of a legislative session, or an administration, depends on the amount of money it can spend."

Prescott Speaks In High School Series

By Robert Mann

"Appreciation of American Government" was the theme of a talk made by Attorney Jack Prescott at the Yoe High School Auditorium last Thursday morning.

Prescott was the fourth speaker in an Appreciation Series of talks to high school students presented by Principal J. R. Young. Others in the series have been Dr. David Shapiro, Hilliard Thomas and a representative of Texas Power and Light Co.

Prescott explained the working operation of our government, putting emphasis on the 3 main sections of American Government, Congress, executive and the courts of our land.

Much of his speech was based on the comparison of Russian government and American government. In explaining America's due process of law he stated that Russia had a process of law but it could hardly be called a due process of law.

"We have the greatest of all freedom in our government, the freedom from fear," quoted Prescott from one of our greatest presidents.

He told the story of a man in Texas who was illegally convicted of a crime and spent 3 years in the penitentiary before the truth was found. The state offered the man a large sum of money in trying to make up for the 3 years of imprisonment something only an American government would have offered," Prescott added.

"May each of us thank God each day, we have a government we can appreciate instead of a government we have to despise," Prescott said.

In closing, Prescott urged students to study law and civics outside of school activities and to always know how their country's government is operating.

Prescott has been an attorney in Cameron the past several years. He attended Baylor University and Texas University.

Tom Murray's Column

THE TEXAS AGGIES are going to be served "T" come fall.

Vep, Farmer Football Coach Jim Myers reveals he is going to install the man-under-center deployment to spice his single-wing. It is rumored Gen. Bob Neyland fainted with that announcement.

Neyland, the Tennessee boss-man, drilled single-wing into his strategies so thoroughly only a few who left his wing to coach ever desert the exact method he employed.

"If I'd have stayed at Iowa State, I'd have definitely done it last season," Myers says, "but I wouldn't ever consider doing it in the first year."

Why is the mashed-nose mentor spicing his single-wing? "To get more of a variety of offenses with it," he answers. Then Jim probably gave Neyland apoplexy by continuing "I've always wanted to use it, so we'll give her a little try in spring practice. We'll still be basically single wing, though."

To make things more confusing, Myers plans to shift from under-center to the single-wing, or rip off T-plays from scratch. He'll be in good shape, here. For Charlie Miltstead, you remember, was an all-state T-formation quarterback.

Then Rodger McFarland, the Fish tailback star, was an all-district man-under at Fort Worth Paschal.

It's not hard to see the single-wing is Jim's first love, however, and that this wrinkle is only a device to make it more effective. Blocking backs make the unbalanced attack percolate, and this mention brings light to Myers' battered features.

Moving off the Farmer first-year team is Darryle Keeling a blocking back in the mold of Jim Thomson. This splendidly-constructed 210-pounder, they say, is a stretch to make a good fullback out of Gordon LeBoud.

That, considering the fact LeBoud was proficient enough at blocking back to be chosen the team's best blocker.

WHEN SILSBEE puts on a basketball tournament, the Tigers are not pickers. Among the 13 visitors to their invitation meet were Beaumont French, perennial Class 3A state champs. Bona the potent 2A champ three years running plus and South Park. There should be a real battle at Amarillo now between Amarillo High and Palo Duro. Those two schools have recently hired new coaches, both brilliant young schoolboy magicians. Only catch is the pair are O. A. (Bum) Phillips, late of Nederland, Texas A&M lackluster out of Dayton and brother to University of Houston's Don First Down. Brown, has entered matrimony with Betty Gaskill of Marshall. Harper Augsburg, former 6.6

Bay City cage star, is a starter on the Southwest Texas State B-team.

Mike Marquez, El Campon's battling bantam, was the sentimental favorite in his Golden Gloves championship loss to Baytown's Eliseo Flores. They booted into the next fight.

Lynn Van-over has been hitting the hoop for Bill McClelland's Lamar Consolidated basketball team. Kirbyville was the first champion of Huntsville's high school invitational tournament, the oldest cage meet of its kind in the state.

Did you know Hearn has one of the best manicured golf courses knee deep in central Texas. Frank Luecke, enthusiastic Cameron Herald publisher who is one Yoe High's most staunch athletic backers, pens a weekly column, "Column 99". Lockhart got a good look at the state's 3A football player in the state last fall. San Marcos' Kay Buckner, an all-state athlete, was voted that honor by Texas sports writers' association.

Texas Line Coach Jim Pittman, on Cuero's Howard Jackson: "That fellow doesn't know how good he could be!" Coe Branch, former football player at the University of Texas and now a medical student in the University's Galveston branch, was married to a Texas City lass, Edythe Skitovich. Brother to Clair and Phil, the latter a '52 AHSCE guard, Coe's family now resides in Kenedy.

Turner Newton, Folschinsky Lead Yoemen Victory

Turner Newton and Rodney Folschinsky led the Cameron Yoemen to a 47-35 victory over Rogers Tuesday night for the Yoemen's first district win of the season.

Rogers was in the lead at the end of the first quarter 11-8. Cameron picked up 20 points in the second quarter to Rogers 4 points to take the lead at the half 28-15.

The second quarter was probably the best played frame the Yoemen had presented this year. The 20 points was tops for a single quarter and the defense, allowing only 4 points, was also tops for the year.

Leading scorer for Rogers was Waits with 14 points followed by Morgan with 6. Cameron F.G. F.T. T.P. Newton 7 0 14 Folschinsky 4 6 14 Gerick 2 2 6 Barkemeyer 2 1 5 Williams 2 0 4 Rogers F.G. F.T. F.P. Waits 6 2 14 Morgan 3 0 6 Harbour 1 0 2 Wright 1 2 4 Holmes 2 0 4

Fading From Scene

By L. A. Wilke

During the bird hunting season a great many shooters lamented

6'3" Frances Saunders from California will hold down the center guard position for the Moore Red Heads when they play Camerons independent mens team February 10 at the Yoe High Gymnasium. The basketball game will be a March of Dimes Benefit.

what seems to be the passing of the double barrel shotgun. The double gun hasn't faded from the picture entirely, but it has been greatly displaced by the single tube guns, both pump and semi-automatic. There even has been an increase in the use of bolt action shotguns.

For a hundred years the double barrel shotgun was a favorite of shooters, both upland and for waterfowl. Perhaps the appearance of the double gun had much to do with this. It looked good and handled easily.

Then there was another very definite feature. It carried two fast shots, usually the right tube modified and the left full choke. This gave a scatter bore for the close in shots, with a tight pattern for long reach.

The first shotgun I ever fired was a double barrel muzzle loader. That was a half-century ago. After using it for a year and getting tired of pouring in the powder and tamping in the wad I was able to sell enough grain sacks and bottles to horse trade for a double 12 gauge. It was second hand and the man told me the left barrel was full choke and would kill a duck at 50 yards. In those days we tested for choke by using a dime. If the dime entered the muzzle of the barrel, it was open. If the dime failed to go into the muzzle it was a full choke. Today we measure the construction differently.

The repeating shotgun already had come along. First there was the old lever-action Winchester. Following that was the still famous 97 model Winchester. Marlin and Remington also were out with good repeaters, although they too had doubles on the market.

Then in 1912 the ever-popular Model 12 arrived on the scene. Since that time automatics and pumps have been forging ahead in the field. The big spurt came, however, when variable chokes, like the Poly, were invented. With one of these chokes on a single barrel, it was possible to have any degree of choke required for whatever hunting one might encounter.

This really pushed the double gun back.

One of the greatest early-day double gun manufacturers was Ithaca. A few years ago, however, this double gun disappeared from the market. Naturally a gun isn't dropped so long as there is a sufficient demand for it to be profitable. The Ithaca featherlight pump now has taken the place of the double.

There were many other fine old shotguns, too. Any outdoorsman 50 years old or over has fond memories of the deluxe value of the old L. C. Smith and the Fox. The Fox remains today, produced by Savage.

Among other double guns still on the market are the Browning Superimposed, Marlin over-under Winchester 21, J. C. Higgins, Stevens and Noble. The prices range from $64.50 to $2500 each for these doubles.

The doubles I have just listed include only the American made. There are many imports, however. Some are good guns with unexcelled workmanship. Others aren't worth the metal in them. Unless you know your guns and know your maker behind them, it is best to leave foreign imports alone, shotgun, rifle or pistol.

A man can be proud of owning any one of the American made double barrel shotguns. They are safe, with reputable service behind them.

Everybody supports the local football team. Now, how about these same sport fans coming to a few basketball games.

There has been some noticeable improvement in the attendance, but there are still plenty of vacant seats in the gym during the games.

After all, there are some advantages of basketball over football. The gym is at least warm, where it's possible to freeze at a football game. A ticket to a basketball game only costs 50 cents. That's half the price of a football ticket. After watching a basketball game, chances are you won't be worn out from walking all over the playing field.

Lets everybody get behind Coach Bill Kruger and his squad and start attending the district ball games from now on out.

V O S

Coach Jim Speer, is keeping his eyes open for next year's football team, has picked up a 170-pound sophomore, Bertie Shumate. With Shumate's running rack and lifting weights, chances are that he will see some service in next years line.

Sophomore Carroll Fikes and Archie Mraz have dropped out of Coach Bill Kruger's basketball recruits. Fikes is running tract under Coach Speer and Mraz is running under Coach Webster.

V O S

Warren Rinn, freshman from Cameron at Del Mar Jr. College plans to run tract at the school. Rinn was injured midway through football season and missed out on some gridiron action.

Bobby Elliott is returning to Del-Mar this week after recovering from the illness that caused him to drop out of school right after the first semester began.

Guy Dillon will be another Cameronte added to the Del Mar campus. Dillon is packing his bags and intends to attend Del Mar.

'Community Sing' To Begin Sunday

Three Cameron firms are sponsoring a community singing festival starting 2 p.m. Sunday at the Cameron Gospel Tabernacle.

Vic Hannon, Cameron businessman, has announced that the "Wilson Hour" will be brought to the public in a live radio broadcast during the community sing.

The public is invited to attend the county-wide program which will run each Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. Regular church hymns will be sung. Sponsors are: Wilson Jewelry, Wilson Produce and Wilson Elevators, Inc.

is one trap edition that sells for from $450 to $2500.

Most of the manufacturers provide these single barrel guns which usually are bought for boys just beginning their shooting. Many men today fondly remember a single barrel as the first gun they ever shot.

I can't keep from shedding a tear, however, for the double gun. I still have in my cabinet a very fine one, made more than a half-century ago.

My advice is if you have a good double, hold on to it. If you have an opportunity to get one, latch onto it.
